A NOTE FROM THE DESIGNER

Innovative new designs are only appreciated when related to my collections from the past. Many have said, "Charles, you are only as good as your next collection." My new collections will mix and match, layer and stack, and balance off my previous collections in a perfectly paired manner. My design style is passionately evolving as my collector's standards continually rise.

I design jewelry with the modern woman in mind. You have passion, you have style and wearing my jewelry will blend seamlessly with both. Family owned and operated, my company is very much in tune with the day to day responsibilities many of my collectors bare. That is why I strive to develop and add to my collections designs that are unique, versatile, and generational.

Ultimately, I strive to transition every one of my customers into a Charles Krypell collector. All of my jewelry will transcend time, setting apart your style in the modern day and creating lasting memories for future generations. Timeless design and detailed craftsmanship will give you the confidence that only true quality can inspire. Show the world the essence of you, one piece at a time.

Enjoy,
Charles Krypell
